Dear Parents and Carers,

To celebrate World Book Day, we are delighted to be hosting our Second-Hand Book Sale once again, following the fantastic success of last year's event. Thanks to your generosity, we raised over £230, which enabled us to purchase new and exciting books for our classrooms. These books have helped to encourage a love of reading across the school, and we are hoping, with your continued support, to make this year's sale just as successful.

This year's sale will be proudly run by our KS2 Reading Ambassadors on Friday 6th March from 8:15am. They are very much looking forward to helping organise and sell the books, as well as sharing their enthusiasm for reading with our school community.

How you can help

Many children have books at home that they have outgrown or no longer read. If you're having a clear-out over the coming weeks, we would be very grateful for any good-quality children's books you are able to donate. All donated books will be sold for 50p or £1, with all proceeds going directly towards refreshing and expanding our class reading areas.

We politely ask that any book donations be brought into school by Thursday 5th March. Donations can be left in the foyer by the school office, where our Reading Ambassadors will collect them and work with myself to sort and organise the books ready for sale.

We warmly invite you to also come along, browse the books and pick up a bargain while supporting reading for pleasure at our school.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Mrs Turner
