Can you name them now?

Did you know that, while there is only one 'global ocean', there are 5 recognised oceans?

Can you name any of them?

Arctic Ocean

Asia

North America

Europe

Atlantic Ocean

Africa

Pacific Ocean

Pacific Ocean

South America

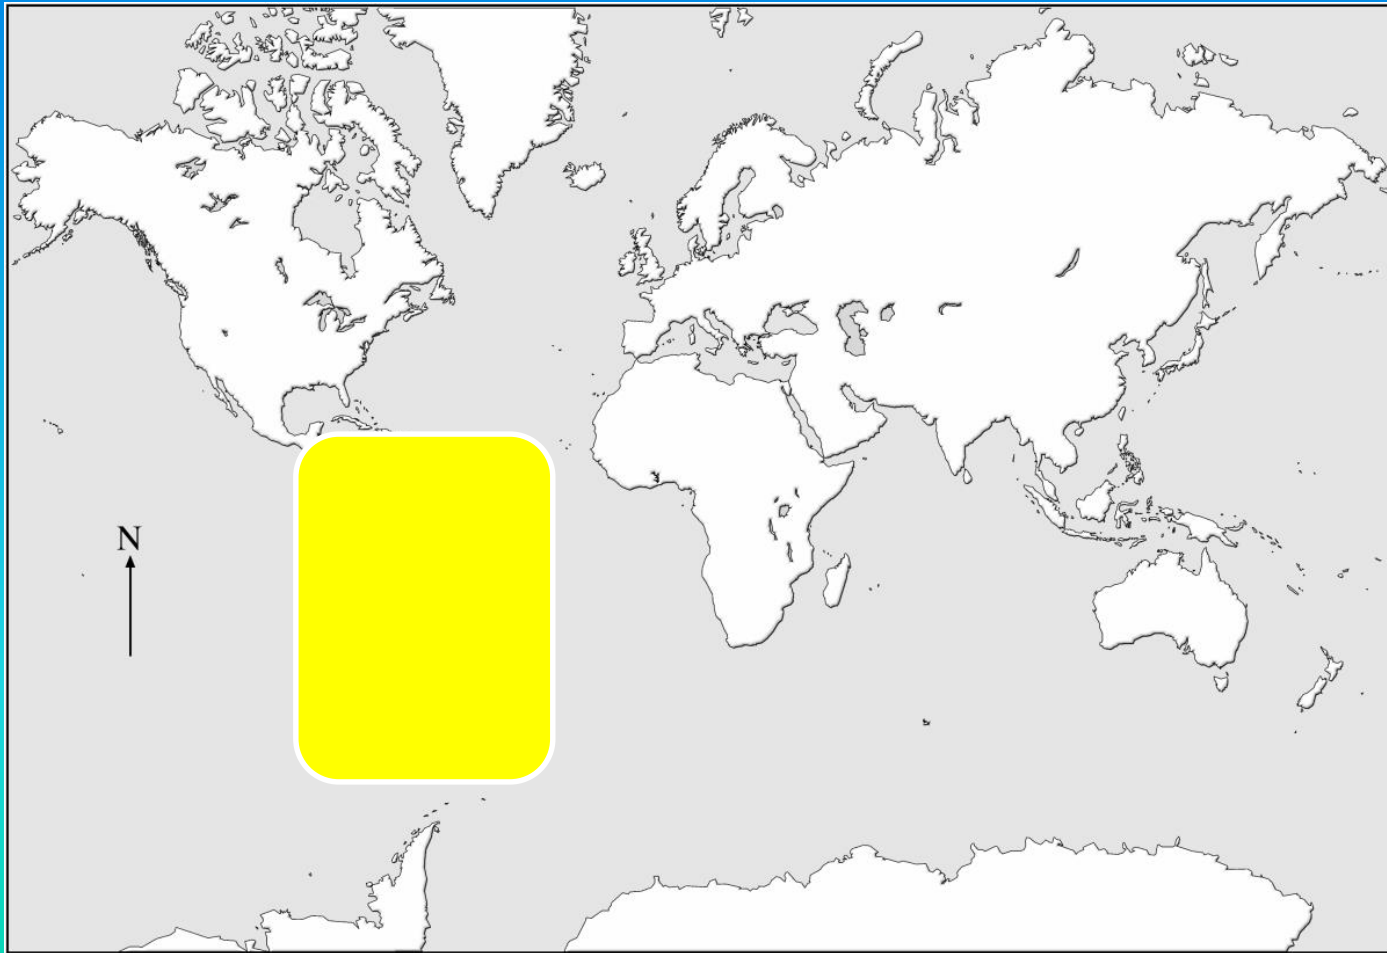

Indian Ocean

Australasia

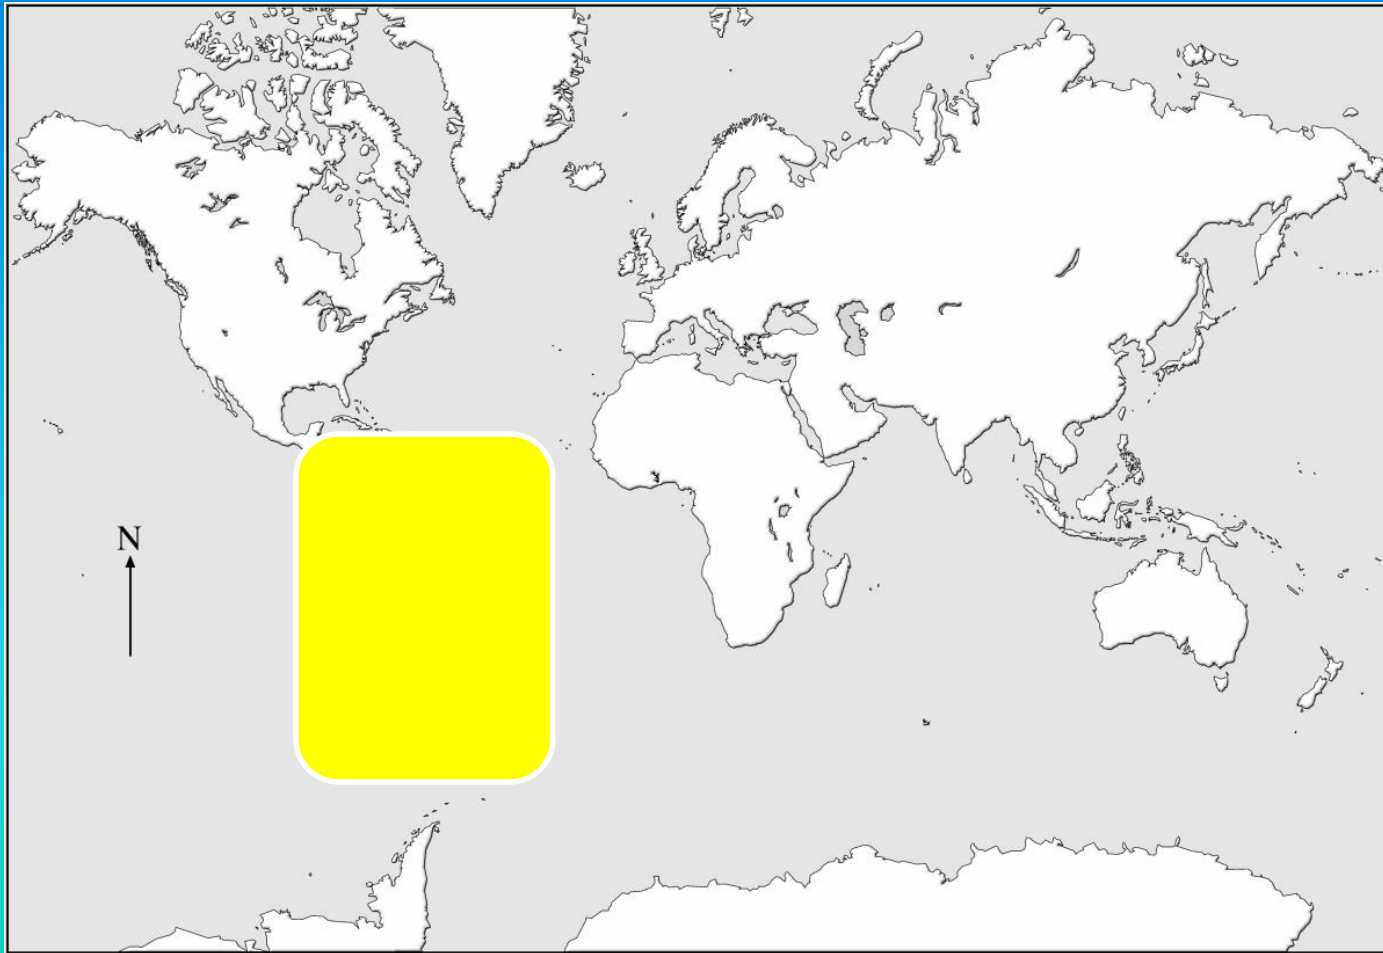

Southern Ocean

Antarctica

Which Continent is missing?

South America!

Our new geography topic is based around a country in South America... Have a go the ‘South America Map Reading Activity’ to enhance your map reading skills and see if you can identify the country we will be learning about... I’ll give you a clue, it’s the largest country in South America!
Question 9 challenges you to create 2 more questions, ask them to somebody at home!
