During Lockdown various people, women and men, have been surprised when they weigh themselves. Although we believed we were exercising throughout the long days and weeks, we must suppose that it was not quite as much as we thought!