

An Abbey Road Writer

At Abbey Road, we want all children to draw on a wide range of experiences to become confident, eager and enthusiastic writers. An Abbey Road writer enjoys communicating creatively and fluently showing a thorough understanding of purpose and audience. They communicate their thoughts effectively by making conscious, ambitious choices, demonstrating a vivid imagination, which enables readers to engage with and enjoy their writing.

We aim to foster a love of literature and an appreciation of its educational, cultural and entertainment value in all that we do.
